

Do you want to play College Baseball?

Collegiate Baseball Camp and Player Skills Showcase

August 8, 9 2009 Nashville, TN

Collegiate Baseball Camp – Saturday August 8

Saturday's event features evaluation and instruction for all players from our staff of current college baseball coaches and former professional baseball players. An evaluation of your swing, fielding, catching and pitching fundamentals, speed and agility will be performed by our professional staff. All players will be provided with a scouting report which will also be posted to their personal profile website. During the evaluation sessions players will receive one-on-one instruction with our professional staff. The correct fundamentals of all baseball skills; - hitting, pitching, throwing, fielding and catching will be covered. Plus you receive training tips to increase speed, strength and agility.

Player Skills Showcase – Sunday August 9

Sunday's event offers the elite high school player the opportunity to showcase their skills to dozens of collegiate coaches and professional scouts in Live Scrimmages PLUS your own web page with your video segments of your performance, your Saturday scouting report and many additional features which will enable you to market yourself effectively to play and possibly earn a scholarship at the college level.
